YOUR LIFE

Erected in 1905 as a Post Office, the Museum has an architectural style recognized as Beaux Arts. It is on the National Register of Historic Places and is located within Oil City's historic northside business district. The Museum collects, preserves and exhibits artifacts and related material relevant to the interests of Venango County residents and visitors.

Through a changing exhibit area, the Museum strives to provide a quality educational and cultural experience for visitors of all ages.
